EXPERIENCE

Might & Main / Print & Interactive Designer February 2014 – March 2015

Might & Main is a small branding agency in Portland, Maine. Some notable projects I worked on included: redesigning L.L. Bean's career microsite and the complete branding of Portland based restaurant Evo.

CIEE / Web Designer November 2010 – February 2014

I was in charge of the lead design of CIEE's home site and the logo design of the 235 countries film contest campaign. I helped to transition and implement responsive design to the entire suite of CIEE websites.

Oat Creative / Production Assistant May 2010 – September 2010

Oat is a small design studio in Boston where I worked on projects for various clients across different forms of media including web, print, and branding. Some notable clients included: Patrick Ahearn Architects, Boston World Partnerships, and Urban Homesteaders.

American Eagle Outfitters / Web Design Intern May 2008 – August 2008

While at American Eagle Outfitters I worked on various web and print media projects. I was in charge of the redesign of the shipping polybag which included a custom pattern as well as designing the ae.com website summer section images.
